It was officially almounced in French circles that the French were not opposed to a blod Trestry, flut desired first a treaty with Germany which might include Austria. Evidently the French are decided on this point, and from a statement made by Lloyd George it would appear that the British Priemer had not yet fallen in with the single treaty plan, and that he rather cavors the French idea.

A German demnilission will be in Compiling on April 1, but it will be a food commission, sent here to make arrangements with regard to faying for food. This commission, which is smade up of six bankers, includes Max Warburz, a brother of Paul, and who is one of the leading financiers of Germany.

Germans Abs. Figh Price.

There has been a suggestion that a syndicate be formed in New York to take over German securides with which food is to be paid for. It is evident there will be haggling over the prices of these and on other German products. Already the Germans bave put such a high price on the does to be exported that the Allies have indicated they would not accept them.

being practical and not at all of the Wilson type.

"But heginning in January an earnest attempt was made to fix the world over in accordance with the Wilson idealistic plan. It has involved difficulties from the start. The ideal and the practical have always been in conflict. Concessions have been made all around, but even these have not removed the obstaclies to a speedy peace. Still this might have been attained had not Lenine all the time been scattering the seeds of Bolshevism on ground made fertile by war's ravages. These seeds, now sprouting in the Hungarian revolutions, are coming as the final blow."

Lloyd George Tainks About It.

This diplomat was unable to forecast the outcome, but expressed the belief that the four first, with Europe on the brink of revolutions would by their new mest of put together a pasce tracky which would give relief.

It was explained to-day that last Priday Lloyd George recognized that the situation had become so bad that something multiple done and therefore took three days by himself to think it out. Before going he plainly told President Wilson and Col. House that their optimistic predictions of peace in three weeks were ridiculous. If Lloyd George arrived at any plan in the three days at Fontainebleau it is unknown as yet.

Afready the Germans have put such a high price on the dyes to be, exported that the Allies have indicated they would not accept them.

The invitation was extended to the Germans by the Suprisms. Sconomic Commission, which fell it would be more convenient to have the Germans rome to France. It is understood, however, that they will not be allowed to thee Paris.

The Bolshevism quastion may be discussed with the Germans since it now appears that the Bis Four has taken upon itself to try to work out some solution for this question.

The plan is substitute for the preliminary treaty with Germans a general heave not as yet given their approval, but two sessions of the Bis Four were held Wednesday and Thursday, the first at Wilson's house and the other at the residence of Low George, which were devoted to devising the best plan to avert impending thank which is now threatening all Europe, and an early decision was expected on the new proposal in this connection.

The French have added their disapproval to this of the British to treaty without losing time, but that inclusion of Sulgaria and Turkey would mean additional delay.

A COURSE DINNER

Said a famous bon vivant after dining in divers places in divers parts of the world:

Dear heaven, I now know there are only about six permanently appealing dishes for a palate not diseased."

Then what matters it whether the menu contains six hundred dishes, or sixty, if you only care for six?

At CHILDS the range is limited to the "permanently appealing" dishes; and yet the variety is sufficient to permit of arranging them into delightfully attractive course dinners.

Take a savory soup, rich in flavor and steaming hot, an entree with vegetables fresh from the farm, and a dainty dessert with a cup of CHILDS coffee-and you have a real American course dinner.

COREAN PROVINCES CONTINUE TO RIOT

Situation Causes Anxiety Among Foreigners.

The general situation here is cause ing anxiety among foreign residents.

The representative body of Coreas missionaries declares that the mission aries are entirely free from any com-plicity in or foreknowledge of the pres-ent troubles in connection with the in-dependence movement. This statement was made in response to a direct inquiry as to the facts of the case. The contention of the missionaries, it may be added, seems to be borne out by the results of the judicial inquiries that have been made.

Something New to New Yorkers

> MOTE:-MESSRS. JAMES McCREERY & CO. HAVE ESTABLISHED A PRICE FOR THEIR ENGLISH CLOTHES FOR THIS SEASON OF

Last Season we made a lot of noise quietly with our English Clothes. Now we are going to talk about them.

Well-bred young men are fed up on American styles. Such fiendish fads as board-front coats and circular-saw lapels simply won't do. We have watched this flirtation of our best young men with Albion's styles very closely. And we've jumped in to give them just the kind of clothes their fine bearing requires.

Let there be no misunderstanding: These clothes are not made in Britain; they're privately tailored for us right here in New York of stuffs that are English in pattern and in many cases English in looming. And they're winning for us the nicest clientele in the city. You'd better look into this new idea of English Clothes.
